

HULSEBOSCH HOPE FOUNDATION

Who are we?

The Hulsebosch Hope Foundation (HHF) is a family foundation based in Chicago, Illinois that funds mid-sized, growth-oriented 501(c)(3) public charities that seek to serve the needs of under-resourced communities in the city of Chicago, especially those on the south and west sides of the city. HHF supports organizations that foster creative and sustainable programs to promote physical, mental, and economic well-being.

Our mission

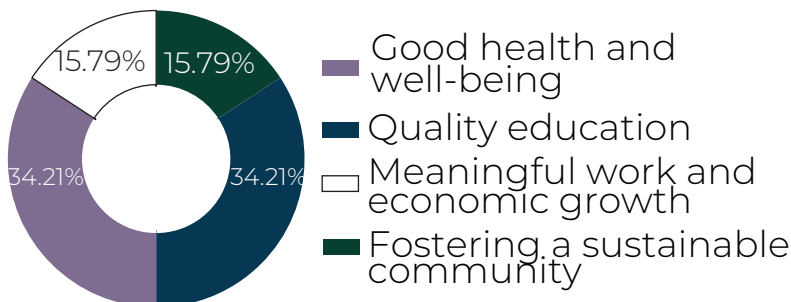

Fostering hope by empowering people who seek to create thriving and sustainable communities.

Our focus

We aim to fund 501(c)(3) public charities with a focus on the following areas:

- Good health and well-being in the areas of:
 - Care and support of children
 - Increased access to mental health care
